EDIT2013

Excellence in Detectors and Instrumentation Technologies

<http://edit2013.kek.jp>

EDIT is a school of Excellence devoted to young researchers, in their graduate studies or in their first two years as a post doc, seeking to get hands-on experiences on the major aspects of detectors and instrumentation technologies.

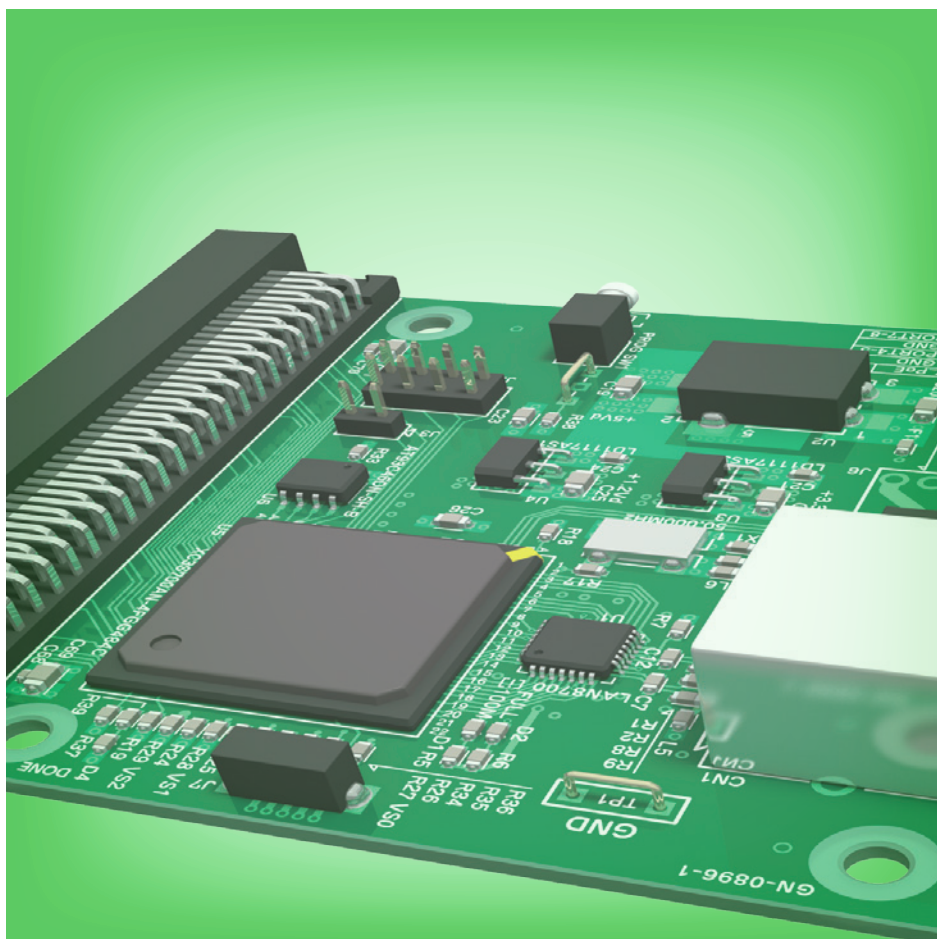

Laboratory program:

- FPGA and DAQ system
- Silicon Tracking Detector
- Neutrino Detector
- Superconducting Detector
- Photon Detector
- Liquid Noble Gas Detector
- Gas Tracking Detector
- Practice with Test Beam

Local Organizing Committee

- T. Chujo (Univ. of Tsukuba)
- J. Haba (KEK) Chair
- K. Hara (Univ. of Tsukuba)
- T. Hara (KEK)
- Y. Ikegami (KEK)
- Y. Kondo (KEK)
- T. Mibe (KEK)
- K. Miuchi (Kobe Univ.)
- M. Noji (KEK)
- K. Ozawa (KEK)
- S. Sasaki (KEK)
- T. Takeshita (Shinshu Univ.)
- M. Tomoto (Nagoya Univ.)
- T. Tsukamoto (KEK)

International Advisory Committee

- A. Cattai (CERN)
- S. Chattopadhyay (VECC)
- I. Giomataris (Irfu)
- S. K. Kim (SNU)
- T. Kondo (KEK) Chair
- P. Krizan (IJS)
- E. Ramberg (FNAL)
- Y. Wang (IHEP)
- H. Yamamoto (Tohoku Univ.)
